SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEK (15TH): There is a Second Collection for Pax Christi. The following is a short explanation of the work of Pax Christi:

"The work of Pax Christi is based on the Gospel and inspired by faith. Our vision is of a world where people can live in peace, without fear of violence in all its forms. Rooted in Catholic Christianity, we work with all who share our values to abolish war and create communities of peace and justice."

"COME AND SEE" GROUP: Meet Monday 16th 7.30pm in the Priests' House.

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEK (22ND): There is a Second Collection for the work of SPUC (the Society for the Protection of Unborn Children), known as The White Flower Appeal.

"In 2017 SPUC is commemorating the 50th anniversary of the passing of the 1967 Abortion Act. Many members of Parliament voted for this Act because they said it was right to legalise abortion for so-called "hard cases". Over 8.7 million unborn children have lost their lives due to abortion in the last 50 years. Since 1967 SPUC has been working tirelessly to uphold the dignity of human life from conception until natural death. Every unborn child without exception is created by God and loved by God and requires full legal protection. Please help make 2017 a landmark year in SPUC's historic campaign to win legal protection for unborn children."

WEDNESDAY CLUB. Meets every last Wednesday in the month (with the exception of January) from 2.00pm to 3 or 3.30pm. The Club arranges a variety of activities including talks, outings and meals out. All are very welcome. If anyone would like to attend if they could get a lift to and from the meetings and for more information please Contact Maggie Lane Tel.: 01233 638881.
